TO-DAY'S RALLY.

Gov. Beckham Will Speak at The Tabernacle.

Hon. A. G. Garuth and Hal Corbett Will Be Here With Him.

The visit of Gov. Beckham to-day will bring the Democratic campaign to a brilliant close in Christian county. Many of the country clubs will send in large delegations and a parade will be made through the principal streets.

The speaking will be held at the Union Tabernacle, and it is safe to say that the seating capacity of the big building will be severely taxed.

Gov. Beckham arrived last night, accompanied by Hon. A. G. Garuth, of Louisville, and Hal Corbett, of Paducah. The latter was a speaker last year for the Brown ticket, but is this year doing some effective work for the Democratic ticket.

The Governor will spend a portion of the forenoon at the Democratic Headquarters at 204 South Main Street, where a reception has been arranged.

The speaking will begin at 1 o'clock p.m., or as soon thereafter as possible. Gov. Beckham will be followed by Mr. Garuth and Mr.
Corbett and at 5:37 the speakers will leave for Guthrie, where they will speak between trains.

This will be Gov. Beckham's first visit to Christian during the campaign and his speech is expected to do much good.

The Democrats of Christian county are better organized and more united than they have been for five years and every indication is that they will greatly reduce the Republican majority, which has not reached 800 in any election since the fraudulent election of 1896.
Many of the repeaters and floaters of former years have quit showing up in this county and the Republican vote of the county is not likely to exceed 4,000.

Gov. Beckham will reach the city at 9:45 o'clock this morning from Guthrie.

LAST REGISTRATION.

Democrats Gain in the Supplementary Additions.

The Democrats got much the best of it in the supplemental registration this week. Out of 145 names registered 99 are white and 46 colored. Politically 80 are Democrats and 65 Republicans. Adding the new names to the regular figures the total in the city stands by district:

	White	Col.	Total.
No. 1—1300	202	502
No. 2—75	337	412
No. 3—389	88	477
No. 4—225	74	290
	789	701	1690.

Last year the total registration was 1670. The gain is altogether in the white vote and the Democrats are well pleased with the outlook. The Republican majority was 223 in the city last year, but it is not expected to exceed 150 this year.

Good Road Meetings.

The turnpike speakers are holding meetings in all parts of the county and are very hopeful of carrying the proposition this time. Two speakers go together, a Demo-ocrat and a Republican. Meetings will be held at several more points this week.

Vanhooser—Parker.

Mr. P. M. Vanhooser and Miss Era Parker were married at the home of the bride a few miles East of the city Wednesday night. Dr C.
H. Nash officiated.

Mr. Eugene D. Armitstead, of Knoxville, Tenn., arrived here yesterday on a visit to his parents.

date until the close of the month it stages of water during the entire month. The winter is to be a severe one. Extreme cold weather is predicted from the 22d of December until the last of February. A hurricane is scheduled for the North Atlantic between the 6th and 8th of fiercest in the South, particularly in Louisiana and Texas. A blizzard is to visit the Northwest between the 12th and 14th of December.

several years ago. He leaves a family. The remains were shipped to Waukesha Wednesday for interment.

ness. She was about fifty-eight ing-house. She was the mother of the well-known McComb boys. Her death is the third in the family in a

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The formula is plainly printed on every bottle—hence you know just what you are taking when you take Grove's. Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains Iron and Quinine put up in correct proportion and is in a Tasteless form. The Iron acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is the Original and that all other so-called Tasteless Chill Tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—it's superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire malarial sections of

KEEPS HIS PROMISE.

The Peculiar Case of Jonathan Reed, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Told His Wife on Her Deathbed She Should Never Be Buried Out of His Sight and Now Lives in Her Tomb.

Among the features of Evergreens cemetery, Brooklyn, there is none that has caused more comment than the Jonathan Reed tomb. It contains the remains of Jonathan Reed, who died in March, 1868, and is also the home of Jonathan Reed, who was his widow. They had been married 35 years when Mrs. Reed died. On her deathbed Reed promised his wife that she should never be buried out of his sight, but that he would have her buried in his tomb. "It's a good idea," he said. "This year he has carried out the metal casket which contains the body has been so placed that he can see the face at will."

The handsome tomb was built soon after the death of Mrs. Reed, and arranged to accommodate only two coffins. One containing the body stands at the right as one enters the tomb, and on the left is an empty coffin of the same pattern resting on marble slab. The exterior of the tomb is arranged with a spade, picket fence, iron and helmet-like.

The walls are decorated with the handiwork of the dead woman, pictures, bric-a-brac, etc.

The door is covered with rugs, and the exterior is tastefully decorated with growing plants in costly vases.

He has a small room above the tomb and occupies it most of the time, a man who knows him said to a New York Times reporter:

"There is considerable misapprehension regarding the motives that induced him to keep up his wife's tomb. The casual observer would suppose that he is possessed of a peculiar state of mind bordering on insanity, though one has only to engage in con-

Tipper Valley People Interested in the Question.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—Lawyers are busy getting ready for court, which is to convene here next month. Minor cases are almost being overlooked in the all-absorbing question of the drainage of Reelfoot Lake which will come up at this term. This is a question relating to the title of the lake, Mr. J. Harris claiming it on one side and the fisher men fighting them on the other. Over half of the country are anxious to see it drained and hope Mr. Harris will win. A great many people are in error to Mr. Harris' intentions in regard to the lake. He intends to drain only in the low places leaving the deep water basins, which will be protected from net fishing and pot hunters, but will be thrown open to sportsmen. Besides the lake is so deep in some places it would be almost impossible to drain it.

DIGEST YOUR FOOD.

Never eat of food that is not well digested, it creates poison and goes into your blood and then you are liable to get sick. Eat slowly and chew well. If you can't help it, use Dr. Carlisle's German Liver Pill. It is a good medicine. Give it the good effects after taking one dose. Give it a trial.

Capt. John W. Wilson who won fame as navigator of Dr. Kane's expedition into the far north, died in Brooklyn.

versation with him for a few moments, when the fact of his sanity will be established in the mind of the visitor.

He believes religious sentiment to be the result of geographical chance in the minds of men, and that it is the man who breaks loose from the ironbound dogmas of his brothers, and is not yet been for the cracks the human race would have remained aborigines. He does not deny his unbelief in a future state, but says:

"I am a better man now than I will be all my life. I shall make the best of this life, and be with my wife while I can."

He thinks the only difference between him and his wife is that the spark has simply gone out of her body, and that she is only sleeping or in a torpid condition.

He does not think that God can anyone from this life, and that death is not an act of nature, and that he cannot "aceuse God of being a murderer."

Mr. Reed possesses a sense of humor that will save a man becoming dependent. He laughs like a man who lives for the present, with interest in one who spends most of his time in and out of a tomb. His memory is as extraordinary as his life. He takes pleasure in relating the experiences of his past life, the humorous as well as the sad side of it, and his manner is expressive, especially when it comes to telling a story as he does because he enjoys it, and, possessing his theories of life, he could enjoy nothing else. To be separated from the one whom he loved would make him most miserable and wretched."

A picture of his wife hangs on the door of the tomb, and under this the following inscription has been placed:

"Let those who seek not knowledge pass by this tomb, and those who fail to learn the secret of life in death depart—Reed."

The Captain Only Laughs.

A Kansas man en route to the Paris exposition declares that the only time in his life he really lost his nerve was when the sailing ship he was on got up the lighthouses with wind and water. He did not know that this is done once a week, in order to have the boats always in readiness, and he felt sure that a great storm was coming that would swamp them all. He went ashore to get help, he turned up the captain and asked him about it. The captain only laughed, and, although that did the Kansas man easy in his mind, it also angered him. "These captains," he confided to another passenger, "put on too much style, anyway. There isn't one of them that could tell the difference between a first and a second class cabin."

The cornerstone of Clarksville's new masonic temple was laid Tuesday with imposing ceremonies.

The new census gives Kentucky 2,147,174 population, not including fugitives from justice out of the state.

Grover Cleveland denies that he predicted a landslide for Bryan, and some other prophet must be given credit for the prediction.

Mr. Yerkes has resigned as collector, but a string will be found tied to the resignation. He has no expectation of being elected Governor.

Nevada is the only state that shows a decrease in population since 1890. The state has dropped from 45,000 to 42,000 people.

The Band Wagon idea originating in Christian county, is being followed this week in McLean, Hopkins, Boyle and several other counties.

Berry Howard rode at the head of a "Civil Liberty" parade in Bell county one day this week and Bradley followed the parade with one of his inflammatory speeches.

The campaign is now in its last days and Democrats are roused as never before in Kentucky. Just watch old Christian roll up 3600 good Democratic votes. This time the boys have on their fighting clothes and are not fighting each other.

Finley Anderson, one of the Republican witnesses who testified against Powers on minor points has given out an alleged affidavit that he lied on the witness stand. Since he is a Republican in good standing, this admission is not at all surprising. But we fail to see why any credence should be given to statements of a self confessed perjurer.

Remove All Doubt.

Let the Democratic majority be so large Tuesday that Kentucky will never again be placed in the doubtful column. All that is necessary to carry the State by 20,000 is to get out the Democratic votes. Democrats you will fail to do your duty if you fail to see to this matter.

In this connection, we would call attention to a republican circular now being scattered over the State. It is sent out by the republican state executive committee, is marked "confidential" and is signed by C. S. Duty, a member of the republican state executive committee.

HEADQUARTERS REPUBLICAN ] STATE EXECUTIVE COM. OF ]
KENTUCKY, Louisville, Ky., Oct. 12, 1900. ]
(CONFIDENTIAL.)

Dear Sir:—In the aggregate what pay for hiring horses and vehicles used by the men of Kentucky at every election, amounts to Five Thousand Dollars. Now, we think this amount can and ought to be saved. We believe Republicans can be found in every precinct in Kentucky who will furnish them free charge if you will ask them and assure them that the stock and vehicles will be returned in good condition; also further assure them that action on their part will be much appreciated by the Committee. Please give us the names of all Republicans in your precincts, cities, towns, villages, spring wagon, and even road wagons, who will likely be willing to contribute their use to your Committee on election day. Of course these horses and vehicles will be used in transporting voters to the polls.

Trusting you will take up this matter and will find a goodly number of such in your precinct, we are, Very Truly Yours, REPUBLICAN EXEC. COM.
By C. S. Duty.

The Democratic party is in need of just such organization as this. If every Democrat in every precinct will donate his horses and teams to the work of bringing out the voters in his precinct, the result will be the largest vote ever polled in the State. The Republicans are proposing to do this—will not Democrats do as much for their party?

We are indebted to Mr. Milt S. Mayo, of Johnson county, for a picture of a mountain still in that county. It seems to be in a canon in the mountains. On one side is a board sign reading as follows:

"SIVE LIBERTI PORE TALER HERRAW FER Yerkez. Hatfield Tolotson writh this." On the other side painted on a rock in scrawling letters is the sign "Moonskin whisky 20 cents a pint" and other signs not legible. In the foreground are four men with copies of the Louisville Post and a deck of cards lying on the ground between them.

The Republican State Committee is sending out to postmasters an urgent appeal for money to carry Indiana. The letters enclose a "coin transmitter" and the recipients are asked to send "$1 or any sum you feel that you can give to carry Indiana for McKinley." The cards are signed by "Chas. S. Hernly, chairman" and enclosed in envelopes with the words "Postmaster" and "Kentucky" printed, leaving only the name of the office to be written. The postmasters did not all allow themselves to be held up.

Ex-Secretary Carlisle, in a letter to O. O. Stealey, says there is no authority for the presence of Federal Deputy marshals and Supervisors at the polls, the act authorizing it having been repealed Feb. 8, 1894. The new State law, now in force, makes it unlawful for Federal Marshals or any one else to intimidate voters at the polls and the latest information is that the Republicans will abandon their proposed scheme and send spies or "inspectors," with no authority, to hang about the polls on the outside.

The unsold stocks of tobacco are reduced to such small volume that very little can be done until the new crop commences to move. Loose buyers report considerable purchases, but this branch of the tobacco business has not yet assumed very great proportions.

The new tobacco year opened here yesterday and it will only be a short while before the crop begins to come in.

Result of the Revolution in Columbia, South America.

New York, Oct. 31.—C. B. Hart, the United States Minister to Colombia, South America, who has arrived here and is on his way to his home in Wheeling, W. Va., said in an interview:

"Matters in Columbia are seriously mixed. The Liberals started a second revolution a few days ago, and it has developed great strength. The fighting has been fierce, and up-to-date the killed and wounded have numbered 30,000. While the Liberals have met with much success, it is my belief that the Government will eventually be successful. But the revolution is seriously disturbing business."

Aiden Benedict's "Quo Vadis."

That the earnest handling of religious themes and the portrayal of religious characters before the footlights is not in doubtful taste is thoroughly proven by the success which has greeted Chas. W. Chase's dramatization of Henry Sienkiewicz's famous novel, "Quo Vadis." It is everywhere described as a wonderful production, reverently played, finely staged and beautifully costumed, filled with interest and so realistic that one sees it can never be forgotten. The prayer scene by the Apostle Peter in the third act is so beautiful in its simplicity that nothing can exceed the intense devotional stillness with which it is received by the audience.

It is a play in which those in front live the scenes with the actors and everything else is forgotten in the keen interest felt. It will be presented at Holland's Opera House on Monday night, November 12.

TOLD THE STORY

Months Before the Trial Says Bob Franklin.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 31.—Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin was asked to-day about the Anderson affidavit and if the affiant told the truth at Louisville and lied at Georgetown. Mr. Franklin knows nothing of what Anderson alleges occurred at Cincinnati. He first heard of Anderson through reputable persons at Barbourville, to whom he had told his story months before the trial of Powers was begun at Georgetown. These persons will be called on to tell of conversations with the self-confessed perjurer, in which he said that he knew enough to convict Powers of the murder, and told them practically what he told on the witness stand. He may be prosecuted in Jefferson county, where he made the affidavit.

Recital To-Night.

NO MARSHALS.

Judge Evans' Plan Contrary to The Law.
Carlisle Gives An Opinion and the Department Admits Its Correctness.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The officials of the Department of Justice feigned great surprise at the dispatches printed here to-day to the effect that Judge Evans had taken matters in his own hands and had decided to appoint Deputy Marshals in defiance of the statute. The department here indorses Mr. Carlisle's opinion as to the law in the case, but admits that Evans could appoint the deputies, and before the notice could be received here and the order cancelled by the Attorney General, the work for which they were appointed would have been accomplished.

The department, however, is working with Evans, as when a prominent official of the office was asked if any steps would be taken to stop the appointment of these deputies, he replied that they had no official notice of the matter, and that they could not act until it was brought to their attention through official channels.

If there was any desire on the part of the officials here to prevent Evans carrying through his project they would move now.

Fair Warning.

Republican strikers and their sympathizers will no doubt attempt their usual plans of bulldozing and intimidation throughout Kentucky this year, and it would be well for Democrats to be on their guard. The attention of the voters, election officers and the public in general is called to section 15 of the new amended election law, in force this year, which reads as follows:

"Any person or persons who shall unlawfully attempt to prevent, or prevent, any voter from casting his ballot, or shall attempt to, or intimidate, any person or voter so as to prevent him from casting his ballot, or who shall unlawfully interfere with the officers of election in discharge of their duties as such, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, be confined in the penitentiary for a period of years, of not less than one nor more than five years, for each offense. The fact that the person or persons so offending may be an officer or officers of the Federal Government, or of the State or any district, county, town, or city, therefore, or of election, shall not relieve them of the responsibility or penalty for the violation of this section."

By this it will be seen that anybody, be he a U. S. Marshal, officer of the Federal Government, of the State or any district, county, town, or city, or any private citizen, who undertakes to interfere with the conduct of an election or intimidate a voter, may be arrested and sent to jail. Official station afford no protection in this dastardly business. Some of the Republican leaders are desperate, and the voters should be on the lookout for any kind of trick which will prevent them from voting the Democratic ticket.

And we advise all Democrats to be peaceable and law-abiding, and if possible, to avoid trouble of any kind.—Hartford Herald.

APPLE TREE

Named William Goebel Now in Full Bloom.

Mr. Charles W. Smithson, of near Howell, reports an apple tree in his orchard in full bloom. The tree is a fine specimen and bears an excellent variety of fruit. Last year, during the campaign, he named the tree William Goebel. Very early in the spring the tree bloomed, but the leaves and young apples soon withered and the new growth died. The tree also appeared to be entirely dead. Strange to say a month ago blossoms began to appear on its branches and it now presents a pretty sight, full of bloom.

Questions for Women

If you were offered sure aid in time of trouble would you put it aside except something of doubtful efficiency?

If you saw before you a strong and safe bridge leading to your goal would you ignore it to try some insecure and tortuous route?

The answer to these questions is plain. You would, of course, choose without hesitation what all evidence showed to be the safe thing and you would risk nothing in useless experiments.

Why, then, do some women risk one of the most precious possessions—health—in trying medicines of unknown value, which may even prove hurtful to them?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has stood the test of years. It has the largest number of remedies for female ills in the world, and nothing could give it this sale except its own merit.

It is not any experiments, but why what is known to be reliable. Mrs. Pinkham's Compound can do all that is claimed for it, and all statements in regard to it are easily verified. Write to Mrs. Pinkham at Somerville, Mass., the postmaster and others.

Three Letters from One Woman, Showing How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Falling of the womb:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I see your advertisement in the paper regarding your Vegetable Compound and would be grateful to you for advice in my case. I am suffering from falling womb, have pain in my sides and back, and am unable to walk. I am getting so weak I cannot stand my feet much. I have the headache sometimes, and a choking, tight feeling in my chest, and aches all over. I have a baby seven months old. I hope to hear from you soon, as I am in so much distress."—Mrs. J. R. COMPTON, Eggbornsville, Va., May 16, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I followed your advice and am now on the second bottle of your Vegetable Compound and I think it is going to come. I am getting so weak I will ever praise it. If I can it will ever praise it. I now have been a great sufferer and now live a life of ease and of getting well."—Mrs. J. R. COMPTON, Eggbornsville, Va., July 12, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Again I write to you. When I first wrote to you for advice in regard to my trouble I thought I could get well again. After receiving your letter I followed your advice exactly, and thanks to you, I am cured of that dreadful disease. I have had a dreadful attack of the womb trouble, and I have to press the good your medicine will do. It is really more was recommended to me."—Mrs. J. R. COMPTON, Eggbornsville, Va., April 2, 1899.

Two Women Cured of Irregularity, Falling of the Uterus and Ovarian Troubles.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have female weakness. Menstruation irregular, and I suffer bearing-down pains in left side and hip. My doctor said I had womb trouble and enlarge ovaries. I have been to three doctors two months and am not improved."—Mrs. MARY E. REED, Swan Creek, Ill., April 27, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I suffer from male troubles. My doctor wishes my ovaries taken out, but I shall not have it done. Menstruation is irregular and my head has a terrible pain. Hospital treatment does no good. I have five children and am forty-four years old. Please advise what medicine to take."—Mrs. E. H. SONDERSON, Philadelphia, Pa., September 27, 1898.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I followed the advice you gave me and your medicine has cured me. I felt better when I had taken the Vegetable Compound but a week."—Mrs. E. H. SONDERSON, Philadelphia, Pa., February 27, 1899.

Another Case of Nervous Prostration and Inflammation of the Bladder Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have used your Vegetable Compound for the cure of my nervous prostration and inflammation of the bladder. I tried doctors, but obtained no relief. After taking one bottle I began to improve, and am now better in every way and feel like a different person."—MRS. DELLA KRIESE, Marionville, Pa., February 22, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound enough for the good it has done me. I suffered from inflammation of the bladder. I tried doctors, but obtained no relief. At last I decided to write to you, and now, thanks to your remedies, I am perfectly cured."—MRS. K. S. GRADY, 131 Union St., Hill Bridge, New York City, April 11, 1899.

"Is there nothing that a splendid Missouri mule can do in a great horse show? Why should the Missouri mule be wholly excluded from the best equine society?"

"Lucky Baldwin Reputed to Be a Millionaire Again.

IS RICH ONCE MORE.

E. J. Baldwin is back in business and here in California. He used to say, however, that it was plain and not luck that brought him millions. Though to the public, wealth seemed to easily flow into his hands, in reviewing the old man's history it appears that his remark had much of truth in it. Mr. Baldwin had several farms in Wisconsin, and when he was 12 years old, he took a fine little horse, of which he was very proud, to South Bend, Ind., and there his horse ran a winning race. With his cash capital and some credit he was able to open a grocery store, which prospered, and in time Baldwin bought several farms and started a ranch for California. In 1853 he reached San Francisco in considerable richer than when he was when he left. Figuring that in the booming new town of San Francisco millions of bricks would soon be needed, he bought an interest in a brick kiln. He leased the interest in the kiln to himself and then started a yard for himself, and then out of this business there came to him a fortune. In a short time he bought a living stable, which proved to be an excellent investment, and in five years Mr. Baldwin decided that he had won enough to warrant his taking a trip around the world.

When he returned from abroad he brought with him a company of Japanese acrobats, who delighted the people of San Francisco and all the mining towns of the west, and finally their manager played them in New York at the Academy of Music. This tour was a success. After Baldwin's return to San Francisco from New York he bought mining stock, and in the course of a little time he discovered that there was a scheme on foot to "freeze him out." He heard of the plans of the other owners and did not approve of them. His attitude was to let the others do what they pleased and with fists, chairs, cudgels and a revolver, made things lively for them for nearly half an hour, till his attorney arrived with an injunction.

After the burning of Baldwin's hotel in 1898 it was supposed that the old man was "fat broke," and though he owned 50,000 acres of land in lower California, this was mortgaged, as was also the hotel. The hotel was not insured, and its unfortunate owner was obliged to sell his ground for $1,425,000. This went toward paying off mortgages and debts.

One Christmas Baldwin was surprised by his friends by announcing that he was going to Cape Nome, as he knew there was wealth there if a man only knew how to get it. In the ruins of his hotel Baldwin had some time before rigged up a sort of theater, and there had a company of Hawaiian dancers, who made him money. He engaged them to play in the mining camp. He gathered other underworld attractions also, fitted up a ship with provisions for eight months, put a theater ready to be nailed together in its hold, and sailed away to Cape Nome.

Now the news comes to San Francisco that "Lucky Baldwin" has struck it rich; that not only was the sum of $1,000,000 worth heisted, he took up pick and shovel and went out into the frozen wilderness and dug for gold, and gold he found.

Nothing but a superabundance of pluck could have made a man of his age determined enough to begin the battle of a search after wealth all over again. The annals of California bristle with references to the energy and determination of men of the world, who have made the state their home for years, but "Lucky Baldwin's" record holds a place with the best of them.

Saint Louis Saves a Life.
A Massachusetts grandmother weighing 200 pounds climbed 15 feet down a well and rescued a neighbor's child who had tumbled into three feet of water at the bottom. Mrs. Philip Turner, of Newton Center, did this. She saw the child fall in and no other had the nerve to go down. The child went down in though the well was still further difficult by reason of an iron pipe which went to the bottom. Mrs. Turner is more than 50 years old, and she has been the heroine of the village ever since the rescue.

Famous German Strategist Reported Seriously ill at His Residence in Berlin.

Count Leonard von Blumenthal, the eminent German soldier, last of the generals who were conspicuous in the Franco-Prussian war, and one of the most distinguished strategists of the German army, is reported seriously ill in Berlin.

Count Blumenthal was given his title of "gut" in 1853 and was made field marshal in 1859. His missions to England for the German government were many and important. In 1850 he was dispatched to Great Britain with special military propositions and was rewarded with the order of the Red Eagle. In 1871 he represented the emperor at the military maneuvers at Chobham, and was engaged with other affairs of gravity in connection with the war department.

On July 30 last Count von Blumenthal was 90 years old. He was a soldier from his boyhood. In 1827, when but 17, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in what is now the French guard. In 1846 he had risen to be premier lieutenants and theographical director of the general staff. His first fighting was done in the streets of Berlin during the disturbances of 1849. He took part in the Schleswig-Holstein campaign, fought in the skirmishes at Auerburg in the battles of Colding and in the battle of Marsberg.

Having meanwhile risen to the rank of colonel, Von Blumenthal, on December 15, 1853, was appointed chief of general staff of the combined army against Denmark. This was the first opportunity he had been given of showing his fine abilities as a soldier. For the next four years in which he stormed the trenches of Dusseldorf he was promoted to major general, and after the peace he was made chief of the general staff of the second army, receiving the oak leaf of the Order of Merit and the star of the Order of the House of Hohenzollern. At the outbreak of the war with France Von Blumenthal was appointed chief of the general staff under the supreme command of the crown prince. When the latter was presented by the emperor with the Iron Cross he declared that Gen. von Blumenthal was as fully deserving of the honor as was he. The great strategist has been living in retirement for many years.

UNIQUE POST OFFICE.

Located on Boundary Line Between Vermont and Quebec Used by Both Countries.

On the boundary line between Vermont and Quebec provinces, in Canada, is an old building which is now used as the post office for both countries. It is an old stone building, built about 75 years ago, and is located at Beebe

Plain, a town that is United States on one side of the street and Canada on the other. The post office is an exhibition of the good will of the people of the section. The father is the postmaster for Quebec and the daughter for the United States. The post office in front of the building is the boundary line. It was moved at one time by one of the citizens to get a road into his place that would be in Canada and cost the governments a great outlay to establish the exact line again. The cellar under the building, "which was originally a general store," contains a large cistern. Whisky was known to be put down in one country and come out in the other. The offices were put in the same building to accommodate the farmers, who did not wish to get out of their wagons at two points.

ROOT LIKES CORBIN.

An Official Friendship That Is the Talk of Washington.

Secretary of War and Adjutant General of the Army Spend Much of Their Time in Taking Equestrian Exercise.

Since Elihu Root came to Washington as secretary of war, 14 months ago, he has been a frequent visitor to the stables and the schoolroom of the celebrated equestrian, although he had probably not ridden on horseback more than 100 miles altogether in the other 44 years of his life. It is seldom that a man of his age develops such enthusiasm for an exacting form of exercise as does Root, and it is evident on every hand, and its only satisfactory explanation involves the great fancy he has evidently taken to Adj't Gen. Corbin, who has been his preceptor in military as well as in other mysteries of Washington life. No more notable exhibition of intimacy between two men in recent years than that popularly referred to as the "conspicuous hobbiness" of Root and Corbin, upon whom about equally the president is supposed to depend for the conduct of that department which has probably become the most important and powerful of the government's great establishments.

The offices of the two men, constituting part of a suite, are separated by a single door that swings almost constantly, while the headquarters of all other members of the cabinet are on other floors of the big building, devoted exclusively to fighting and foreign affairs, those of the general commanding being situated at the extreme distant limit of the structure. This neighborhood is undoubtedly a safe haven for Root, with whom it is safe to say he found the arrangement when he came just as it had been under half a dozen of his predecessors. The duties of the civilian director of the war of-fees, as it is still officially designated upon its great seal, and of its real military and naval forces are closely complementary and interdependent; and, their business hours being sharply synchronous, nothing is more natural than that the period and pursuits of leisure of these two men should be strikingly coincident. The result, however, is that at eight and frequently in the early morning hours, before official calls are awake, the clattering center of two fine horses which bear him and his chief of state is heard in one part of the district, and on half-dozen or dozzen different roads. Sunday, very distant points are reached, Virginia battlefields visited and the surrounding country beyond the sight of the tall marble shaft of the Washington monument is thoroughly explored.

"The Prince of the World" was presented at the opera house last evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. It is a really great play, and a company of universal excellence and they came modestly into town and scored the hit of the season. The play appeals to all classes. The Jew, pagan, infidel, atheist, all can find instruction and entertainment in the story and the series of histrioic living pictures which is presented in the play. The story is both fascinating and instructive and never lags or loses interest for a moment. The prologue is a perfect little gem, in its way, and is finely acted by the company.
